

So it's time to Celebrate?

AN INTRODUCTION TO

About Me

I am a wine lover, storyteller, crazy dog lady, Perth Coogee local, who loves to write, share and deliver wedding ceremonies that truly capture the essence of YOU, the couple we are celebrating.

I am also known to be wildly inappropriate with a sarcastic sense of humour but most importantly I always know when to put my 'professional pants' on so that above all your ceremony is fun and filled with laughter whilst leaving your Nanna with a warm fuzzy feeling in her heart.

My Style

- I have zero hang ups on how a ceremony should look/sound/feel. Don't want to say or do something? No problems. As long as the legal wording is included, your ceremony is what we make it!
- My background is in event management so I am organised, beyond belief. I live my life in checklists. No joke. Which also means I am very relaxed and confident in my delivery.
- I promise to have your back throughout the planning of your wedding and on your special day. I love making the ceremony as stress-free as possible for my couples and I want you to feel like you have a friend on your side during the whole process.

SO WHAT'S INCLUDED?

The below packages are just two examples of how I can help you celebrate. If you are looking for something different I am happy to create you a tailored quote. Prices quoted include travel up 50km radius of Coogee. Travel above this may incur additional fees.

PERSONALISED FOR YOU:

- A private meeting with me to do your pre-wedding legal paperwork and chat all about YOUR big day.
- Preparation of all administration requirements and legal marriage documentation including prompt lodgement following your marriage ceremony. This includes your Notice of Intended Marriage form, Declaration of No Legal Impediment to Marriage and completion of your Official Marriage Certificate. After your marriage has been registered with BDM, you can apply for your marriage certificate at your own cost (approx. $50).
- Access to my Ceremony Planner and Inspiration Guide which has loads of example wording, readings, poems, vow inspiration and much much more.
- A personalised 20-30-minute marriage ceremony. Hand crafted and delivered by me. I send you a script in advance for approval.
- An authentically presented ceremony utilising my own professional PA system- a Bose S1 PA System and wireless Sennheiser microphone (my PA is killer). It has Bluetooth capability so I can also help play your music.
- My travel to and from your wedding.
- Your professionally printed ceremonial wedding certificate a copy of your wedding script and vows to keep.
- A rehearsal the day prior or at a time that works for you.
- Unlimited emails, calls, text messages in the build-up to your big day.
- A helpful name change checklist that will guide you through the process if a name change is on the cards.

So What's in a Marriage Ceremony?

The below is a quick guide to some of the elements that can go into a Marriage Ceremony. Remember as long as we get the "legals" ticked off the rest is completely optional.

THE WELCOME

A chance to get everyone settled, set the scene and share any important pre-wedding messages

THE PROCESSIONAL & GIVING AWAY

Time for the important people to arrive. You! You can have one partner waiting or arrive together OR have you thought about both having an individual arrival?

THE INTRO

Let's get this party started by sharing your love story, acknowledging important people & talking about the commitment ahead.

POEMS AND READINGS

I can read something that has important meaning to you or why not get a special guest involved in a reading. In my guide I have suggestions and we weave your selections into the right spots!

THE LEGALS

These are the few legal lines we need to include to ensure the ceremony is solemnised according to Aus law. This is the monitum, my introduction and some words that you must say before you deliver your vows

CLOSING AND RECESSIONAL

I share any final lasting messages & announce you as the newest couple on the block! It's time to boogie all the way to your reception!

VOW & RING EXCHANGE

This is where you exchange personalised promises and loving reminders of why you want to do life with this person. You can write your own or I can prepare you something special.

DECLARATION & KISS

I declare you married and you get to enjoy a smooch in front of your nearest and dearest.

THE SIGNING

You, as the couple and two witnesses over the age of 18 must sign the official certificates

Let's lock in your Celebration

It would be my absolute privilege to be your Celebrant.

If you have any questions or want to secure me as your celebrant just reach out. I look forward to crafting your dream ceremony and making your wedding day a celebration to remember.
